Nor is a crew gratuity tip which is normal for you to give them at the end of the day, You will find they well deserve this, Guideline will be 1,000THB each

Our favourite and most popular cruise is our "Maithon run". A five island hop. First to the Kai islands in the morning – if you like seafood, here we pick up fresh fish, squid and prawns to cook on the BBQ, fried rice and corn on the cob. The crew will make a salad to serve with this, and you have a magnificent lunch. Could not be fresher! Maithon waters are great for snorkelling, as they are turquoise and crystal clear. There are two family pods of dolphins there too, which our guests manage to see 90% of the time. On the way back, the boat can call in at Ko Rang yai or Ko Phae We guarantee you will have a fantastic day!

This beautiful Marine National Park is world famous, with spectacular limestone cliffs towering out of the sea. Kayaking in the caves is very popular here, and you can hire them for 500 baht. Then you can cruise to James Bond Island – whether you go ashore here or not is up to you. After that the crew will inflate the jacuzzi where you can sit and float and relax and have a beer and some lunch. On this route you choose your onboard lunch from the menu below.

From Phang Nga we cruise across to Kudu islands then you can speed down the east coast of Ko Yao Noi. If you want to dine in style, a popular request is to have lunch at the famous Pyramid restaurant, this is a delightful spot with magnificent views of the Krabi Islands and Krabi itself and the food is outstanding (try the stuffed squid!) This delightful restaurant will give you, free of charge, a tour round this tiny island which is like going back 40 years in time of the farms, water buffalo and rice paddies, it comes with our recommendation, our previous guests have loved this in the past. We will reduce your charter cost by 250 THB a head should you wish to take this option .

Then there is an island called Ko Nok, if you have the energy, climb the hill here, you will enjoy spectacular views of Phang Nga bay. From there we will take you to our secret beach (during the months from late October to late April). There you will have no other tourists, but a beautiful beach all to yourselves. And then you will wend your way home, usually at sunset, and If there is time you can call in at the beautiful island Ko Phe, which has a gorgeous sand bar which appears at low tide – you will probably have this to yourselves – at high tide its covered.

Our secret beach and two other islands.

You will want to spend many hours there, it's wonderful, and so good for a party celebration, dining in style with tables and chairs in the shade, crisp white table cloths, proper glasses and cutlery and barbecues. There are beach games such as volleyball, football, badminton, beach cricket and there is a big slide and a floating jacuzzi in the water. Music and hammocks under the big tree.

The Phuket Islands are in general very busy, here you will be all on your own – your own private beach.

From this island beach you can visit Ko Naka where there are Jet Ski's, Para -Sailing, Wake Boarding etc. And then to the hidden treasure of Ko Phe, with its magical white sand bar exposed at low tide.

Bamboo Island is the most northeasterly island in Phi Phi. It's a tropical hotspot, yet never too crowded, perfect for a quick getaway from the hustle and bustle of other, more popular spots. This heart-shaped island gives plenty in terms of views. It's surrounded by a strip of white sand, with lush vegetation, including Bamboo trees in its middle. Snorkeling here is great; the island is blessed with a notable coral reef rich with fish species.

(Fuel Surcharge Do Apply)

The Krabi area is full of beautiful islands and crystal clear water. There is the famous Ko Hong Krabi with its beautiful hidden lagoon. Again choose your lunch from the menus below, or we can call in at a quaint, authentic waterside Thai seafood restaurant. You pay, but it's cheap and very good. On the way back you can call in at our secret beach where you will have this beautiful beach to yourselves (Late October to end of April) and Ko Phe described in Route 3.

4 Hours , On this trip we visit the gorgeous island of Rang Yai. Once we reach the destination and drop anchor you are free to enjoy our various toys, such as the floating jacuzzi , swim in the beautiful clear waters and stroll or sunbathe on the beautiful white sands of the palm fringed beach. There is also a restaurant and beach bar available for your enjoyment.
