

Axia

US 62,100 p/week + VAT + APA

📍 Greece ⚓ Athens 📅 1990 ++ 123FT / 37.49M

🛖 3 cabins 👤 8 guests ⚙️ 6 crew

Overview

AXIA was launched in 1990 by the renowned shipyard Palmer Johnson and had a major refit in 2007.

She is a classic blue water sailing yacht with center cockpit for long-haul passages. Her interior is with classical Munford teak fielded panels polished brass accents and Baccarat crystals, the perfect meld of old school nautical style and graceful class and elegance.

AXIA has an expansive main salon and dining area, with a private study/family room, with entertainment centre, sleeper sofa, flat screen TV and CD with iPod hookup. She accommodates 6 to 8 guests in 3 cabins, including a full-beam master stateroom with a king bed covered with sumptuous Italian Frette Linens, the two beautifully appointed guests staterooms on both sides of the yacht are equipped with twin beds and all with ensuite facilities.

Her exterior is perfect for sun lounging and relaxation. The spacious aft deck area that features a large dining table and settees for alfresco entertaining. The generous cockpit space is placed with teak lounge chairs for sunbathing or star gazing.

WiFi and GSM provide her onboard guests with worldwide communication possibility.

With AXIA, you may enjoy a wonderful charter holiday or even a regatta in the beautiful Greek water.

Specifications

Model	Sailing Yacht
Year Built	1990
Length	123ft
Draft (m/ft)	5 m
Max Beam (m/ft)	8.2 m
Engines	one
Engine Make	MTU
Engine Model	12V 183T E91
Engine Speed Cruising (kn)	10 knots
Engine Generator	2 x Northern Lights 55kw
Cabins	3
Guests	8
Crew	6

Water sports:

- Adult Slalom Water Skis and Child Water Skis
- Beach BBQ Grill
- Brig 5.80m RIB with Mercury Outboard 115hp
- Inflatable two person kayak with downwind sail
- Snorkel Equipment
- The "Wing" and Banana (5 person)
- Two Inflatable SUPs
- Wake Board and Knee Board

