Overview

DOUCE FRANCE is a luxury sailing catamaran designed by Van Peteghem & Lauriot Prevost, world-renowned naval architects and specialists for multihull yachts. She is perfectly equipped for charter worldwide to discover the world's most beautiful and unspoiled places whilst submerged in the highest standards of luxury in the yachting industry.

She is built for adventure and graces the world seas with her gentle, yet impressive, appearance. Guests appreciate her spaciousness and intimacy, her elegance and fine line on the water. With her 138 feet she's the largest schooner sailing catamaran in the world and anyone who sees her stunning looks cannot be left untouched.

The aft deck is an exquisite sunbathing area or lends itself to cherish a perfect sunset over the infinite ocean. Her trampolines are exceedingly spacious, offering enough room for guests to sprawl out on and feel the sea spray as she glides along.

Luxury sailing catamaran DOUCE FRANCE accommodates up to 12 guests in 6 brightly lit and air-conditioned staterooms. Each of the cabins are attractively lined with pale sycamore wood and each has a queen sized bed which can also convert to two twins if need be. The cabins have their own ensuite bathrooms & shower.

Her cruising plan for 2020/21 is as followed:

15th July – 15th August 2020: Tahiti/Tuamotus, French Polynesia

15th August – 25th September 2020: Fiji/New Caledonia/Vanuatu/Solomon Islands, South Pacific Islands
