Overview

The Lagoon 450 offers an unparalleled charter experience. With a capacity to host up to 18 guests for day trips and 6 guests for an overnight stay, it stands as an ideal choice for both lively social gatherings and intimate cruising escapades. The catamaran's expansive design includes multiple areas for interaction and relaxation, ensuring that every guest finds their perfect spot aboard.

The seamless integration of the saloon and cockpit, accentuated by panoramic windows, invites the breathtaking vistas of the sky and sea into the heart of the vessel. The interior, characterised by its openness and abundant natural light, creates an atmosphere of warmth and sophistication. This vessel is not just a means to traverse the waters but a destination in itself, promising an unforgettable journey through Sai Kung's pristine waters and the enchanting archipelago of Hong Kong.

Accommodation on the Lagoon 450 is thoughtfully arranged, featuring three cabins outfitted with double beds and private en-suite baths, providing a comfortable and private retreat after a day of exploration.
