Overview

This 47m 4700 Series motor superyacht SIROCCO was built in 2006 by Heesen and last refitted in 2013. Previously named SIROCCO OF LONDON, her luxurious interior is designed by Omega Architects and her exterior styling is by Heesen.

SIROCCO is an exceptional tri-deck superyacht which blends the finest natural materials with state-of-the-art technology. Her interior is earthy, yet opulent. Leather, marble, wood and natural stone combine to create a luxurious finish inspired by Africa.

Guests will find SIROCCO's living space light, airy and practically designed. Its deck space is perfect for sunbathing, relaxation and taking in the views. The saloon is located on the main deck and incorporates a vast lounge area. The main deck offers both enclosed and alfresco dining for twelve guests and a world class chef to cater for every culinary request.

SIROCCO's interior sleeps twelve. The Master Suite is situated on the upper deck and extends the entire beam of the yacht. It includes a spacious party area, office and sumptuous bathroom. This superyacht also has a VIP stateroom, three double cabins and one twin cabin. Areas are air-conditioned and are all fitted with iPad controlled in-cabin entertainment.

SIROCCO is a family-friendly luxury yacht which encompasses an on-deck jacuzzi, exercise equipment and swim platform. Various toys include a FunAir Yacht Slide, water skis and wave runners.

The modern stabilisation system for cruising and at anchor results in a smoother and more comfortable stay. SIROCCO combines both performance and luxury, with her audio/visual and impressive leisure facilities, this stunning yacht will offer the perfect superyacht charter experience.
